

Worksheet 1: Defining Our Issue

Issue:

Outcomes and Measures:

What opportunities for change in our community can we leverage?

What barriers currently exist to prevent that change?

www.tamarackcommunity.ca

Worksheet 2: Evaluating the community context

Condition	What is challenging about this condition for our community?	Ideas for filling the gaps
History of Collaboration
Influential Leaders
Urgency of the Issue
Adequate Resources

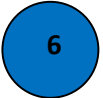

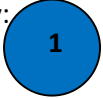

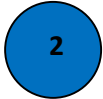

Worksheet 3: What's in, what's out? Scope

	In	Out
Beneficiaries or targets
Geography
Timeline
Activities and Outcomes
Draft Intended Impact Statement

A Framework for Change Worksheet

This worksheet will help guide a conversation about how to move your ideas into an action plan and also enable you to gain greater clarity about the issue or opportunity you are trying to address. What does your gut tell you? Work your way around the six stages. At the end of the worksheet, you will find additional reflection questions for your team to consider when building your common agenda.

Definition of a Framework for Change: Your group's shared working hypothesis of how you intend to positively impact the health of babies in your grant region.

Strategies: 		Assumptions:
 Influential Factors	Problem/Issue/Opportunity: 	Desired results (outputs, outcomes and impact)
	Community needs/assets /resources

Source: <https://apps.publichealth.arizona.edu/CHWToolkit/PDFs/Logicmod/chapter3.pdf>