Take a bio break

Healthy Start Learning Academies

Healthy Start Learning Academies provide an opportunity for HS grantees to participate in curriculum-based courses on specific topics associated with the four HS approaches and 19 HS benchmarks. Learning Academies build HS staff knowledge and prepare them to apply their learnings to their HS program's day-to-day activities.

Learning Academy Structure

- Monthly virtual sessions
- Required readings
- Homework assignments
- In the future, all sessions will be posted on EPIC in an e-learning format for those who cannot attend the live sessions

Goal:

To examine the breadth and depth of fatherhood movement in the 20th and 21st century, deeply examining the policies and practices that have influenced fatherhood programming that have either encouraged or impeded father engagement.
