OBJECTIVES

1. Develop an understanding of the created consequences of the unmet Social Determinants of Health throughout the 400+ year timeline.
2. Establish a baseline understanding of and respect for the current state of Black Fathers and Fatherhood in the U.S.
3. Address the inherent racism of systems, inclusive of health care, and how this impacts Black Families.

ROOTT ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

Restoring Our Own Through Transformation (ROOTT) is a collective of concerned Black Families, Families of Color, community members, advocates & interdisciplinary professionals dedicated to decreasing maternal & infant mortality in Ohio.

ROOTT's mission is to comprehensively restore our collective well-being through collaboration, resource allocation, research & empowerment, in order to meet the needs of parents & families within communities.

ROOTT IMPACT STATEMENT

ROOTT accomplishes its mission by providing direct services & public policy advocacy & education, in alliance with local & national stakeholders.

ROOTT goes beyond surface level risk factors regarding marginalized mothers, fathers, infants, & communities in addressing the root causes of these rates.

ROOTT directly addresses the Structural Determinants of Health including the institutional racism that creates & sustains the Social Determinants of Health.

ROOTT collaboratively builds quality relationships with families, caregivers, professionals & paraprofessionals aligned with our mission.

Mass incarceration has disproportionately ensnared young black men, sucking hundreds of thousands of marriage-age men out of the community.

New York Times, 2015

“Today mass incarceration defines the meaning of blackness in America: black people, especially black men, are criminals. That is what it means to be black.”

One of the most persistent statistical bludgeons of people who want to blame black people for any injustice or inequity they encounter is this: According to data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (C.D.C.), in 2013 in nearly 72 percent of births to non-Hispanic black women, the mothers were unmarried.

ROOTT Fatherhood Discussion
BMHW 2022

BlackFatherhood.mov

“At some point, we must acknowledge and address how the foundation of Obstetrics and Gynecology as we know it in the U.S., was built from the stolen knowledge and traditions of Black and Indigenous Women...and used against us through means of rape, sexual assault, pedophilia, eugenics, and genocide. Reproductive Justice is the definition by which we say, WE are taking this back.”

Jessica M. Roach, MPH

“Race neutral solutions are impotent in the address of intentional, race-specific racism. Consequently, true health equity will certainly change the lives of the oppressed and the oppressor, in ways that may lead to the deconstruction of American inhumanity.”

DL Wingard, MPA
